Mr. He will now resume practice of the law. Walker is very sanguine that the committee will report a bill embodying the

The bill will not disturb the greenbacks, the silver coinage nor the gold coinage, but it will absolutely relieve the treasury of the redemption of any form of paper or coin certificates. It will make the provision that all other progressive countries except ours makes and keeps all forms of money at par. Guarantees will be furnished for al paper money precisely as is now furnished by the bond security held by the government. It will be the old sound state banking system nationalized-the Suffolk system, as it is called.'

Mr. Walker said he had not examined the bill of the monetary commission, but said he considered the efforts of Secretary Gage and the monetary commission of the very first importance in conjunction with the bills drawn by himself, Mr. Fowler and other members of the committee and expressed the opinion that these efforts would materially aid in the solution of the problem. He expects the committee to report a bill by Feb. 1.

DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT.

Secretary Gage to Call In $100 Silver Certificates.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.- The $100 silver certificates have been counterfeited. One of very fine workmanship having recently fallen into the hands of the secret service department. By order of Secretary Gage the bill was taken to shief engraver at the bureau of engraving who pronounced the counterfeit a very dangerous production. It was engraved on steel and printed on two pieces of paper pasted together after colored silk fibre had been distributed between them. The work, he said, was that of a very careful and excellent engraver, and while there was no appreciable difference between the genuine and the counterfeit note to the casual observer, under a glass many slight differences were discovered. These, however, were extremely difficult of dis-

In view of the dangerous character of the counterfeit, Secretary Gage yesterday decided to stop issuing and to call in all $100 silver certificates, of which there are about $16,000,000 outstanding. These will be exchanged for silver certileates of smaller denominations and the plates destroyed. As soon as new plates can be engraved a new series will be issued. Secretary Gage desired the statement made that, in his judgement, it was unsafe for business men or others to accept silver certificates of this denomination, and in case any were now on hand they should be sent to the banks for transmission to Washington.

MANCHESTER, Eng., Jan. 4. - The Guardian says: "The government has categorically stated that Great Britain will refuse to recognize any special rights granted at any Chinese ports to any particular power. Any port opened to one power must be open to all or open to none. If Russia has been granted the right to winter ships at Port Arthur Great Britain will enforce her rights to the same privilege and her ships will winter there whether China concedes or does not concede the right." Continuing the Guardian swys: "If Germany obtains a naval station at day. Kiao-Chou, Great Britain insists upon having a lease of ground for a naval station at the same port, and she will support every other power making the same claim." The statement has neither been confirmed nor denied, and the general belief is that, whether an actual note has been dispatched to China or not, the Guardian's statement fairly represents British policy.

Coilapse of a Floor In the Cityhall at London.

OVER 2,000 PEOPLE INTHE ROOM

They Were There to Listen to Addresses From Successful Candidates at the Municipal Election - Number of Injured Will Never Be Known-Men Trampled Down In the Panie That Ensued.

LONDON, Ont., Jan. 4.—Thirty persons are known to have been killed and many injured by the collapse of a floor in the cityhall last night. Last night closed the municipal campaign, and the hall was crowded to hear the addresses of the successful candidates.

How many were injured will never be known, as those who suffered but slight injuries at once made for their homes or were cared for by friends. Those who were more seriously injured were carried to neighboring drug stores, whence they were taken to the hospital or to their homes after their injuries had been attended to.

At the close of the polls a crowd gathered in the cityhall, where it has been the custom for years past for the successful candidates to address the elec-

Two Thousand People In the Hall. The building was crowded to the very doors, probably 2,000 people being jammed in its narrow space. There was a lull in the proceedings when the audience called for several of the newly elected aldermen at once, and there wa some delay in securing a speaker to address them. Alderman Carrothers joined the mayor in an effort to secure quiet. In response to numerous calls R. T. Toothe was pushed forward to the platform on which the speakers stood.

As he reached it there was an ominious crackling and the raised platform on which the mayor and newly elected aldermen were seated seemed to pitch forward to the floor.

There was a sagging of timbers, and the next moment 150 people were hurled 20 feet to the floor below. A beam running 20 feet along the center of the hall had given way and the crowded mass standing above that section of the floor was thrown in a heap to the bottom. A large safe stood in the corner of the hall, and a huge steam coil, weighing half a ton, came crashing down on the heads of the victims.

Panie at the Doors.

Following the crash there was a wild where the majority of the crowd had entered, there was a terrible panic Those in front were thrown down by the on-coming rush, shrieking and fighting for the door and safety. Only onehalf of the rear door, a space of proba bly three feet, was open, and in the mad rush no one thought to open the door in its entirety, and 500 people struggled through the narrow space, the strong bearing down the weaker. An investigation of the wreck after the catastrophe disclosed the fact that a whole section of the floor had dropped the joists having been as neatly cut off as though the work had been done with

The building was an old one, having been erected in the early 50s and of late years additional stories had been placed on the old walls.

Both of the city hospitals are full and many of the injured are at their owr homes.

Kelly claims that for 15 years he has not slept night or day. Thus far all the doctors to whom he has submitted himself for examination have been puzzled by his disorder. He avers that he goes to bed every night as does the ordinary mortal and closes his eyes, but that he is never in the state of unconsciousness which rests the brain. In his 11th year he suffered from an attack of nervous prostration, continuing for over six months, and his remarkable period of wakefulness dates from that time. There are two more dates for tests of strength—the joint senatorial caucusses tomorrow night and the joint balloting for senator one week from next Wednesday, Jan. 12. With the complications of the legislative organization and its patronage disposed of the Hanna men last night began a most desperate fight on the senatorship.

Both sides spent last night in close being sought are anticipated from representatives. It is conceded that Senator Burke, one of the Republican senators from Cleveland who has not yet appeared, will be here to vote against 75 men have been thrown out of work. Hanna. His attorney yesterday presented his certificate of election to Lieutenant Governor Jones just before the senate convened. The senate will cast 17 votes for Hanna and 19 against him. If Hanna is no stronger in the house than the Boxwell ticket was, when Boxwell received 53 votes and Mason 56 for speaker, then Senator Hanna would have only 70 votes on joint ballot and 73 are necessary to elect. Notwithstanding the results on the organizations of both houses, both sides seem equally confident in claiming the senatorship on joint ballot.

For the First Time in Several Years the Treasury Shows a Surplus.

WASHINGTON, January 4,-The U. S. treasury starts into 1898 with a more pleasing outlook than it has had at the beginning of a year for sometime. There was a surplus of about $1,750,000 for the month of December, and it is resonably certain that with the excep-. $1.00 tion of the present month, and poseibly April, when heavy quarterly payments on account of pensions have to be made, every month of the present fiscal year will show a surplus. It should not be forgotten that the payments made on account of the purchase of the Union Pacific railroad were not included to make that December surplus. While this conditi n is gratifying to President McKinley Nhe republicans of the Fourth Con- and every republican, it is especially gressional District of Indiana, are invited gratifying to President McKinley and every republican, it is especially gratifying to Chairman Dingley, who prepose of selecting a Republican District dicted many months ago, when the extra session of congress was considering his tariff bill, that the government's financial condition would improve, just as it has done under the operation of that bill as a law On Saturday, Mr. Dingley furnished the Press Associations with a detailed statement of the revenues under the Dingley law and of the revenue outlook

Not withstanding the persistent efforts of a portion of the democratic press to prevent contributions, the Presidents manly appeal for donations for the relief of the poor Cubans, who are suffering for the necessities of life by reason of the conditions on the island and not for any faults of their own, has touched the charitable hearts of the country and substantial relief is is pouring into every steamer. Arrangements have been made for Miss Clara Barton, President of the American Red Cross, to go to Cuba with a staff of assistants to help the U. S corsular agents in distributing the aid among the suffering. The president is much gratified at the promp response of the country to his appeal

This year, for the first time since 1893 when the death of Mrs. Harrison caused its suspension there was no New Year's day reception at the White House. President McKinley spent the day in rest, going for a drive with Mrs. Mc-Kinley in the morning and receiving several personal friends during the afternoon and evening,

The democrats and the assistant dem ocrats are trying to make it appear that the financial position of President Mc-Kinley, which is in strict accord with the platform upon which he was elected urnishes a reason for the Senators who are popularly known as "silver repubicans" to break their pleasant relations with him, but so far as can be learned it is labor wasted.

BRITISH HISTORY WRONG.

A Misleading Account of the Battle of White Plains.

In its series of supplements recounting "The Battle Honors of the Services" The British Navy and Army Illustrated once in awhile says something about the British forces in the Revolutionary war. When it does, it is pretty sure to be inaccurate.

The cover of one issue of the "Battle Honors' has a spirited picture of Bragg's grenadiers winning the battle of White Plains, where they won the name of the "Slashers," because they threw away their flintlocks and carried an intrenchment with their short swords. The picture is entitled "The Slashers at the Battle of White Plains,

The battle of White Plains was fought, as a matter of fact, on Oct. 28, 1776. It is stated in the publication that Washington sent 8,000 men to occupy a hill above the ford of the "Brunx," and that this position was carried by the "Slashers" with their swords. It is also said that "soon after this turning movement General Washington, abandoning his stores, retired with his army toward Connecticut."

As a matter of fact the position referred to was held by 1,400 Americans under General McDougal and was carried by a British force of 4,000. One would think from reading the British version of the fight that the "Slashers" whipped the entire American army. There were other British regiments engaged in the work of carrying Chatterton hill, and it is unfair to them to give all the credit to the "Slashers."

Of what took place after the position was carried the version given by The Navy and Army Illustrated is deliberately misleading. The facts are that when the hill was carried General Mc-Dougal retired to Washington's camp with a loss of 80 prisoners and 100 killed and wounded. The British lost 229 killed and wounded. Howe did not dare to attack Washington, but sent for reenforcements, and on Nov. 5 moved his augmented army to Dobbs Ferry. Washington, being confronted by superior numbers, retired, not toward Connecticut, but across the Hudson to New Jersey on Nov. 9.

When a nation starts out to write its military history and distorts it in some particulars, it makes one doubt the truth of all. The truth about the battle of White Plains would redound just as much to the glory of the "Slashers" as does the perverted account published by the navy and army. - New York Press.

GAS DECISION.

Injunction Issued Against the Richmond Natural Gas Company.

RICHMOND, Ind., Jan. 4.—Judge Henry C. Fox, of the Wayne circuit court, handed down a decision yesterday in the case of Charles H. Clawson against the Richmond Natural Gas company to enjoin the company from cutting off his supply of gas because he had refused to comply with an order of the company raising the price of natural gas from 121/2 cents (for heating purposes) to 20 cents a thousand cubic feet, when used for illuminating purposes. The decision was for the plaintiff. The greatest interest has prevailed in the suit, for it involved the people's rights as patrous of the company, and the outcome is the cause of much rejoicing.

Harrison and other eastern claimants to recover possession of thousands of acres of farm lands in Adams, Hancock, Warren, Knox, Henderson, Mercer, Peoria and other counties. Richard Smith lived in Raleigh, N. C., 50 years ago. He died in 1852, leaving a will by which his estate went to his wife, Penelope Smith, and daughter, Mary A. Smith, and after their death a vast amount of property in the Illinois military tract reverted to the daughter's children, if any, or to Smith's natural heirs. Smith's widow died long ago, and his daughter died later in a Philadelphia insane asylum, Now, natural heirs have combined to dispossess over 100 present occupants of large farms on the ground that their title is but the life estate of Mrs. Penelope Smith and the daughter. The property is now worth $2,000,000.

Collapse of a Floor In the Cityhall at London.

OVER 2,000 PEOPLE INTHE ROOM

They Were There to Listen to Addresses From Successful Candidates at the Municipal Election - Number of Injured Will Never Be Known-Men Trampled Down In the Panie That Ensued.

LONDON, Ont., Jan. 4.-Thirty persons are known to have been killed and many injured by the collapse of a floor in the cityhall last night. Last night closed the municipal campaign, and the hall was crowded to hear the addresses of the successful candidates.

How many were injured will never be known, as those who suffered but slight injuries at once made for their homes or were cared for by friends. Those who were more seriously injured were carried to neighboring drug stores, whence they were taken to the hospital or to their homes after their injuries had been attended to.

At the close of the polls a crowd gathered in the cityhall, where it has been the custom for years past for the successful candidates to address the elec-

Two Thousand People In the Hall.

The building was crowded to the very doors, probably 2,000 people being jammed in its narrow space. There was a lull in the proceedings when the audience called for several of the newly elected aldermen at once, and there wa some delay in securing a speaker to address them. Alderman Carrothers joined the mayor in an effort to secure quiet. In response to numerous calls R. T. Toothe was pushed forward to the plat form on which the speakers stood.

As he reached it there was an ominions crackling and the raised platform on which the mayor and newly elected aldermen were seated seemed to pitch forward to the floor. There was a sagging of timbers, and the next moment 150 people were hurled 20 feet to the floor below. A beam running 20 feet along the center of the hall had given way and the crowded mass standing above that section of the floor was thrown in a heap to the bottom. A large safe stood in the corner of the hall, and a huge steam coil, weighing half a ton, came crashin down on the heads of the victims.

Panie at the Doors. Following the crash there was a wild rush for the doors. At the south door where the majority of the crowd had entered, there was a terrible panic Those in front were thrown down by the on-coming rush, shrieking and fight ing for the door and safety. Only one half of the rear door, a space of probably three feet, was open, and in the mad rush no one thought to open the door in its entirety, and 500 people struggled through the narrow space

OHIO SENATORSHIP.

Legislature Was Organized In Opposition to Senator Hanna.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 4.—The senatorial contest in the Ohio legislature has be. Fire Supposed to Have Originated come desperate. The combine of 10 anti-Hanna Republicans with the Democratio members won at the caucuses last organizing both branches of the legislature in the interest of the opposition to the re-election of Senator Marcus A.

There are two more dates for tests of strength—the joint senatorial caucusses tomorrow night and the joint balloting for senator one week from next Wednesday, Jan. 12. With the complications of the legislative organization and its patronage disposed of the Hanna men last night began a most desperate fight on the senatorship.

Both sides spent last night in close conferences. All the changes that are being sought are anticipated from representatives. It is conceded that Senator Burke, one of the Republican senapeared, will be here to vote against 75 men have been thrown out of work. Hanna. His attorney yesterday presented his certificate of election to Lieutenant Governor Jones just before the senate convened. The senate will cast 17 votes for Hanna and 19 against him. If Hanna is no stronger in the house than the Boxwell ticket was, when Boxwell received 53 votes and Mason 56 for speaker, then Senator Hanna would have only 70 votes on joint ballot and 73 are necessary to elect. Notwithstanding the results on the organizations of both houses, both sides seem equally confident in claiming the senatorship on joint ballot.

DEFICITS ENDED.

For the First Time in Several Years the Treasury Shows a Surplus.

Washington, January 4,-The U. S. reasury starts into 1898 with a more pleasing outlook than it has had at the beginning of a year for sometime. There was a surplus of about $1,750,000 for the month of December, and it is resonably certain that with the excep-$1.00 tion of the present month, and possibly April, when heavy quarterly payments on account of pensions have to be made, every month of the present fiscal year will show a surplus. It. should not be forgotten that the payments made on account of the purchase of the Union Pacific railroad were not included to make that December surplus. While this conditi n is gratifying to President McKinley and every republican, it is especially gratifying to President McKinley and every republican, it is especially gratifying to Chairman Dingley, who prepose of selecting a Republican District dicted many months ago, when the extra session of congress was considering his tariff bill, that the government's financial condition would improve, just as it has done under the operation of that bill as a law On Saturday, Mr. Dingley furnished the Press Associations with a detailed statement of the revenues under the Dingley law and of 16 the revenue outlook

This year, for the first time since 1893 when the death of Mrs. Harrison caused its suspension there was no New Year's day reception at the White House. Natural Gas Company.

C. Fox, of the Wayne circuit court, handed down a decision yesterday in the case of Charles H. Clawson against the Richmond Natural Gas company to enjoin the company from cutting off his supply of gas because he had refused to comply with an order of the company raising the price of natural gas from 1216 cents (for heating purposes) to 20 cents a thousand cubic feet, when used for illuminating purposes. The decision was for the plaintiff. The greatest interest has prevailed in the suit, for it involved the people's rights as patrons of the company, and the outcome is the cause of much rejoicing.

BRITISH HISTORY WRONG.

A Misleading Account of the Battle o White Plains. In its series of supplements recount ing "The Battle Honors of the Services" once in awhile says something about the British forces in the Revolutionary

The cover of one issue of the "Battle Honors' has a spirited picture of Bragg's grenadiers winning the battle of White Plains, where they won the name of the "Slashers," because they own, has touched the charitable hearts threw away their flintlocks and carried an intrenchment with their short swords. The picture is entitled "The Slashers at the Battle of White Plains,

The battle of White Plains was fought, as a matter of fact, on Oct. 28, 1776. It is stated in the publication that Washington sent 8,000 men to occupy a hill above the ford of the 'Brunx,' and that this position was carried by the "Slashers" with their swords. It is also said that "soon after this turning movement General Washington, abandoning his stores, retired with his army toward Connecticut."

As a matter of fact the position referred to was held by 1,400 Americans under General McDougal and was carried by a British force of 4,000. One would think from reading the British version of the fight that the "Slashers" whipped the entire American army. There were other British regiments engaged in the work of carrying Chatterton hill, and it is unfair to them to give all the credit to the "Slashers."

Of what took place after the position was carried the version given by The Navy and Army Illustrated is deliberately misleading. The facts are that when the hill was carried General Mc-Dougal retired to Washington's camp with a loss of 80 prisoners and 100 killed and wounded. The British lost 229 killed and wounded. Howe did not dare to attack Washington, but sent for re enforcements, and on Nov. 5 moved his augmented army to Dobbs Ferry. Washington, being confronted by supe rior numbers, retired, not toward Connecticut, but across the Hudson to New Jersey on Nov. 9.

When a nation starts out to write its military history and distorts it in some particulars, it makes one doubt the truth of all. The truth about the battle of White Plains would redound just as much to the glory of the "Slashers" as does the perverted account published by the navy and army. - New York Press.

QUINCY, Ills., Jan. 4.—Suit has been commenced by Edwin M. Harrison and other eastern claimants to recover possession of thousands of acres of farm lands in Adams, Hancock, Warren, Knox, Henderson, Mercer, Peoria and other counties. Richard Smith lived in Raleigh, N. C., 50 years ago. He died in 1852, leaving a will by which his estate went to his wife, Penelope Smith, and daughter, Mary A. Smith, and after their death a vast amount of property in the Illinois military tract reverted to the daughter's children, if any, or to Smith's natural heirs. Smith's widow died long ago, and his daughter died later in a Philadelphia insane asylum. Now, natural heirs have combined to dispossess over 100 present occupants of large farms on the ground that their title is but the life estate of Mrs. Penelope Smith and the daughter. The property is now worth $2,000,000.

Even when his eyesight failed in 1832 he continued to give her instrucher work. Her destiny was to be that of a portrait painter, but she never tives at North Vernon several days last liked it and determined to study animals. At the age of 16 she exhibited at Dusseldorf the picture of "A Cat In the Window," which attracted much attention, but the picture which made her reputation was "The Friend of Man," a canvas 6 feet by 8, representing an old man weeping over the death of one of his dogs, which had been used for drawing a cart. The technical skill and the wealth of emotion put into this work were highly praised. Very soon afterward she turned her attention to cats, and she has painted every form and attitude and character and kind of cat and kitten. The usual way that she works is by placing a cat in a glass case made for the purpose with cushions which invite the ani nal to a nat ural position. When puss changes her pose, Mme. Ronner puts aside that work and begins another study Although 75 years of age, Mme. Ronner looks 20 years younger, save for her snowy white hair. She is upright, and her complexion is remarkably fresh. What is most strange is the fact that one never sees a cat at Mme. Ronner's. Whenever she wants to paint one she has a model brought to her. -- Chicago Record.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4. - Chairman Walker is very sauguine that the committee will report a bill embodying the features of the old Suffolk system to the tional benking act. The bill will not disturb the greenbacks, the silver coinage nor the gold coinage, but it will absolutely relieve the treasury of the redemption of any form of paper or coin certificates. It will make the provision that all other progressive countries except ours makes and keeps all forms of money at par. Guarantees will be furnished for al paper money precisely as I is now furnished by the bond security held by the government. It will be the old sound state banking system national-

Mr. Walker said he had not examined the bill of the monetary commission, but said he considered the efforts of Secretary Gage and the monetary commission of the very first importance in conjunction with the bills drawn by himself, Mr. Fowler and other members of the committee and expressed the opinion that these efforts would materially aid in the solution of the problem. He expeots the committee to report a bill by Feb. 1.

Collapse of a Floor In the Cityhall at London.

OVER 2,000 PEOPLE INTHE ROOM

They Were There to Listen to Addresses From Successful Candidates at the Municipal Election - Number of Injured Will Never Be Known-Men Trampled Down In the Panie That Ensued.

LONDON, Ont., Jan. 4 .- Thirty persons are known to have been killed and many injured by the collapse of a floor in the cityhall last night. Last night closed the municipal campaign, and the hall was crowded to hear the addresses of the successful candidates.

How many were injured will never be known, as those who suffered but slight injuries at once made for their homes or were cared for by friends. Those who were more seriously injured were carried to neighboring drug stores, whence they were taken to the hospital or to their homes after their injuries had been attended to.

At the close of the polls a crowd gathered in the cityhall, where it has been the custom for years past for the successful candidates to address the elec-

Two Thousand People In the Hall. The building was crowded to the very doors, probably 2,000 people being jammed in its narrow space. There was a lull in the proceedings when the audience called for several of the newly elected aldermen at once, and there wasome delay in securing a speaker to address them. Alderman Carrothers joined the mayor in an effort to secure quiet. In response to numerous calls R. T. Toothe was pushed forward to the platform on which the speakers stood.

As he reached it there was an ominious crackling and the raised platform on which the mayor and newly elected aldermen were seated seemed to pitch forward to the floor.

There was a sagging of timbers, and the next moment 150 people were hurled 20 feet to the floor below. A beam running 20 feet along the center of the hall had given way and the crowded mass standing above that section of the floor was thrown in a heap to the bottom. A large safe stood in the corner of the hall, and a huge steam coil, weighing half a ton, came crashing down on the heads of the victims.

Panie at the Doors. Following the crash there was a wild rush for the doors. At the south door, ing for the door and safety. Only onehalf of the rear door, a space of proba bly three feet, was open, and in the mad rush no one thought to open the door in its entirety, and 500 people struggled through the narrow space,

There are two more dates for tests of strength—the joint senatorial caucusses tomorrow night and the joint balloting for senator one week from next Wednesday, Jan. 12. With the complications of the legislative organization and its patronage disposed of the Hanna men last night began a most desperate fight on the senatorship.

Both sides spent last night in close conferences. All the changes that are being sought are anticipated from representatives. It is conceded that Senator Burke, one of the Republican senators from Cleveland who has not yet appeared, will be here to vote against 75 men have been thrown out of work. Hanna. His attorney yesterday presented his certificate of election to Lieutenant Governor Jones just before the senate convened. The senate will cast 17 votes for Hanna and 19 against him. If Hanna is no stronger in the house than the Boxwell ticket was, when Boxwell received 53 votes and Mason 56 for speaker, then Senator Hanna would have only 70 votes on joint ballot and 73 are necessary to elect. Notwithstanding the results on the organizations of both houses, both sides seem equally confident in claiming the senatorship on joint ballot.

DEFICITS ENDED.

For the First Time in Several Years the Treasury Shows a Surplus.

Washington, January 4,-The U. S. treasury starts into 1898 with a more pleasing outlook than it has had at the beginning of a year for sometime. There was a surplus of about $1,750,000 for the month of December, and it is resonably certain that with the excep-$1.00 tion of the present month, and poseibly April, when heavy quarterly payments on account of pensions have to be made, every month of the present fiscal year will show a surplus. It should not be forgotten that the payments made on account of the purchase of the Union Pacific railroad were not included to make that December surplus. While this conditi n is gratifying to President McKinley and every republican, it is especially gratifying to President McKinley and every republican, it is especially gratifying to Chairman Dingley, who prepose of selecting a Republican District dicted many months ago, when the extra session of congress was considering his tariff bill, that the government's financial condition would improve, just as it has done under the operation of that bill as a law On Saturday, Mr. Dingley furnished the Press Associations with a detailed statement of the revenues under the Dingley law and of 16 the revenue outlook

Not withstanding the persistent forts of a portion of the democratic press to prevent contributions, the Presidents manly appeal for donations for the relief of the poor Cubans, who are suffering for the necessities of life by reason of the conditions on the Bragg's grenadiers winning the battlesland and not for any faults of their of the country and substantial relief is s pouring into every steamer. Arrangements have been made for Miss Clara Barton, President of the American Red Cross, to go to Cuba with a staff of assistants to help the U. S. corsular agents in distributing the aid among the suffering. The presient is much gratified at the promp response of the country to his appeal

This year, for the first time since 1893 when the death of Mrs. Harrison caused its suspension there was no New Year's day reception at the White House. President McKinley spent the day in rest, going for a drive with Mrs. Mc-Kinley in the morning and receiving several personal friends during the afternoon and evening.

The democrats and the assistant demcrats are trying to make it appear that the financial position of President Mc-Kinley, which is in strict accord with the platform upon which he was elected urnishes a reason for the Senators who are popularly known as "silver repubicans" to break their pleasant relations with him, but so far as can be learned t is labor wasted.

BRITISH HISTORY WRONG. A Misleading Account of the Battle of White Plains.

In its series of supplements recounting "The Battle Honors of the Services" The British Navy and Army Illustrated once in awhile says something about the British forces in the Revolutionary war. When it does, it is pretty sure to be inaccurate.

The cover of one issue of the "Battle Honors" has a spirited picture of of White Plains, where they won the name of the "Slashers," because they own, has touched the charitable hearts threw away their flintlocks and carried an intrenchment with their short swords. The picture is entitled "The Slashers at the Battle of White Plains,

The battle of White Plains was fought, as a matter of fact, on Oct. 28, 1776. It is stated in the publication that Washington sent 8,000 men to occupy a hill above the ford of the "Brunx," and that this position was carried by the "Slashers" with their swords. It is also said that "soon after this turning movement General Wash ington, abandoning his stores, retired with his army toward Connecticut."

As a matter of fact the position referred to was held by 1,400 Americans under General McDougal and was carried by a British force of 4,000. One would think from reading the British version of the fight that the "Slashers" whipped the entire American army. There were other British regiments engaged in the work of carrying Chatterton hill, and it is unfair to them to give all the credit to the "Slashers."

Of what took place after the position was carried the version given by The Navy and Army Illustrated is deliberately misleading. The facts are that when the hill was carried General Mc-Dougal retired to Washington's camp with a loss of 80 prisoners and 100 killed and wounded. The British lost 229 killed and wounded. Howe did not dare to attack Washington, but sent for reenforcements, and on Nov. 5 moved his augmented army to Dobbs Ferry. Washington, being confronted by superior numbers, retired, not toward Connecticut, but across the Hudson to New Jersey on Nov. 9. When a nation starts out to write its military history and distorts it in some particulars, it makes one doubt the truth of all. The truth about the battle of White Plains would redound just as much to the glory of the "Slashers" as does the perverted account published by the navy and army. - New York Press.

GAS DECISION.

Injunction Issued Against the Richmond Natural Gas Company.

RICHMOND, Ind., Jan. 4.—Judge Henry C. Fox, of the Wayne circuit court, handed down a decision yesterday in the case of Charles H. Clawson against the Richmond Natural Gas company to enjoin the company from cutting off his supply of gas because he had refused to comply with an order of the company raising the price of natural gas from 121/2 cents (for heating purposes) to 20 cents a thousand cubic feet, when used for illuminating purposes. The decision was for the plaintiff. The greatest interest has prevailed in the suit, for it involved the people's rights as patrons of the company, and the outcome is the cause of much rejoicing.

BIG DISPOSSESSION SUIT.

It Covers Property In a Number of Illinois Counties.

QUINCY, Ills., Jan. 4.—Suit has been commenced by Edwin M. Harrison and other eastern claimants to recover possession of thousands of acres of farm lands in Adams, Hancock, Warren, Knox, Henderson, Mercer, Peoria and other counties. Richard Smith lived in Raleigh, N. C., 50 years ago. He died in 1852, leaving a will by which his estate went to his wife, Penelope Smith, and daughter, Mary A. Smith, and after their death a vast amount of property in the Illinois military tract reverted to the daughter's children, if any, or to Smith's natural heirs. Smith's widow died long ago, and his daughter died later in a Philadelphia insane asylum, Now, natural heirs have combined to dispossess over 100 present occupants of large farms on the ground that their title is but the life estate of Mrs. Penelope Smith and the daughter. The property is now worth $2,000,000.

Savel a Licking.

The butcher's boy who had called to deliver a parcel had thoughtlessly left the garden gate open, and the 7-year-old ruler of the house called after him; "Here! Come back and shut that gate!"

The butcher's boy stopped, but showed no inclination to obey the command. "I don't have to!" he shouted defiantly. "Yes, you do," insisted the 7-yearold. "You come right back and shut it now, or somebody's going to get the Columbus ar worst licking he ever had."

The butcher's boy came running back, full of fight. "He is, eh?" he said. "Well, who's going to lick 'im, eh?" "Mother is," calmly remarked the youngster. 'If you leave that gate open, I'll be certain to go out into the street. Mother'll see me, and I'll get licked. Shut it tight, please, so I can't get out.' And the butcher's boy did. -Chicago

In Honor of Lieutenant Blish.

One of the most pleasant social evenis that every occurred in Seymour was the reception rendered to La n'er ant John B. Blien last evening by Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Grand Jury Indietments.

The recent session of the grand jury seems to have directed an unusual amount of attention to Seymour parties. The deputy sheriff was here yesterday and appeared to be over taxed with business. He was looking up some of the parties against whom the grand jury hasreturned indictments. He placed Policeman Hopewell, and two or three others under arrest, charging them with having had a part in what is termed an "assault" on Alex. Davison the night of the county seat election It is said that out of this will come more than thirty arrests, all of which is wrong and little short of an outrage. The enormous sale of Dr. Bull's J. H. Hodapp and Geo. Winkenhoff-r were also apprised of the fact, that the Keep a grand jury had found a bill against them, charging improper use of funds which trouble grows out of their former relation to the Home Furniture Company, about which the settlement of affairs has caused no little hard feeling.

A Famous Old Lady.

In a beautiful house in Brussels there Charles and Leo Finke are hauling lives an old lady, Mme. Henrietta Ronuer, whose work has won her fame and money. Like Rosa Bonheur, she is an Ralph Erwin spent Friday night animal painter, but instead of horses and cows her specialty is cats. In the early part of the century her father, Joseph Augustus Knip, was well known in Amsterdam as a flower and landscape painter and educated his daughter in art. Even when his eyesight failed in 1832 he continued to give her instruction by listening to her descriptions of her work. Her destiny was to be that of a portrait painter, but she never liked it and determined to study animals. At the age of 16 she exhibited at Dusseldorf the picture of "A Cat In the tion, but the picture which made her reputation was "The Friend of Man," a canvas 6 feet by 8, representing an old man weeping over the death of one of his dogs, which had been used for drawing a cart. The technical skill and the wealth of emotion put into this work were highly praised. Very soon afterward she turned her attention to cats, and she has painted every form and attitude and character and kind of cat and kitten. The usual way that she works is by placing a cat in a glass case made for the purpose with cushions which invite the animal to a nat ural position. When puss changes her pose, Mme. Ronner puts aside that work and begins another study Although 75 years of age, Mme. Ronner looks 20 years younger, save for her snowy white hair. She is upright, and her complexstrange is the fact that one never sees a cat at Mme. Ronner's. Whenever she wants to paint one she has a model arought to her. -- Chicago Record.
